

Contents

Introduction from the publishing staff	7
--	---

migrations en mémoire

Immigration and the issues of memory at the national level

Marie-Claude Blanc-Chaléard From Negation of Memory to "CNHI": Historians and the Acceptance of immigration in France	12
Philippe Joutard National memory is moving to historical reality	23
Anne Morelli Fortune and Misfortune of Projects regarding a Historical Museum of Immigration in Belgium	27
Rainer Ohliger & Jan Motte Between Oblivion and Representation: Commemorating Contemporary Migration History in Germany	35

new appropriations: vectors and territories

Laure Teulieres Memory in Debate, Memories at Work: The History of Immigration in Practice through Local Initiatives	51
Olivier Chavanon Public Policies and Memory of Urban Population	60
Béatrice Fleury-Vilatte & Jacques Waller L'Anniversaire de Thomas : When Italians became Part of Lorraine Heritage	71

commemorations and community memories

Irène Dos Santos Between Institutional and Personal Memories: What Shared Portuguese Migration Memory in France?	84
Antoine Dumont To Get Together to Remember: The Memorial Endeavour of Moroccan Migrants Associations in France	96
Scott Soo Putting memory to work: a comparative study of three associations dedicated to the memory of the Spanish republican exile in France	109
Jean-Philippe Namont Does a Czechoslovakian Memory exist in France?	121

the resurgence of conflicting memories

Éric Savarèse Memory Wars About the Algerian Question: Concerning Some Militant Claims	134
Christine Chivallon Resurgence of Slavery Memories: Between Generalized Acceleration and Singular Historicities	144

documents

Child of the moon (by Maurice Fontaine)	157
Roms: The occlusion and rediscovery of a genocide (by Benoît Califano and Christophe Perrin)	161
African veterans: A memory of faces and words (by Philippe Guionie)	166

research in process

library

abstracts

170

196

217